... aims at empowering youth to shape a narrative about migration along the Balkan route that reflects the EU values of unity, solidarity and non-discrimination.

FACTS AND FIGURES

The number of asylum seekers has remained roughly the same over the last three years: 2022: 6787, 2023: 7261, 2024 (until Sept.): 4251. Slovenia remains primarily a transit country and the vast majority of people leave Slovenia to seek international protection in other EU countries.

In October 2024, there were just over 1,200 persons with recognized international protection status or refugee/refugee status living in Slovenia.

In 2022, the share of foreign nationals in Slovenia was just over 9%.

MIGRATION AND IMMIGRATION

Immigration

Most foreign nationals come from the former Yugoslavia and came to Slovenia through legal channels. In 2024, roughly 48 000 consents and work permits for employment of foreigners were issued in Slovenia. Most of them came from Bosnia and Herzegovina, followed by Kosovo and Serbia.

Emigration

More than 30 000 Slovenians work abroad. It is estimated that around half a million Slovenians and people of Slovenian descent live outside Slovenia.
